

Global anaesthesia: Towards health equity

Tuesday, 24 March 2020

Venue: Royal College of Anaesthetists, London

Registration: £125 (£95 for anaesthetists-in-training)

Clinical Content Leads: Professor Ellen O'Sullivan, Dr Francesca Mazzola and Dr Anna Janowicz

Join us for a day of lecture-based discussion on the delivery and provision of anaesthesia across the world. Hear from world-class speakers on current challenges, new initiatives and how we can move towards health equity. Topics will include:

- The health of migrant populations in the UK
- How religion affects health access
- The impact of climate change on health equity
- Developing global health skills

BOOK NOW >

Global anaesthesia: Towards health equity

Tuesday, 24 March 2020

09:00-09:30	Registration and refreshments
Session 1 chair: Professor Ellen O'Sullivan
09:30-09:45	Welcome and introduction	Professor Ellen O'Sullivan
09:45-10:10	The role of religion in health access	Dr Michelle White
10:10-10:40	Inequity in healthcare access and its effects on migrant population health	Dr Peter Gough, Doctors of the World, UK
10:40-10:55	Discussion and Q&A
10:55-11:15	Refreshments
Session 2 chair: World Anaesthesia Society
11:15-11:50	Corruption	Rachel Cooper, Transparency UK
11:50-12:30	Climate change and its impact on health equity	Professor Sir Andy Haines, Department of Public Health
12:30-12:45	Discussion and Q&A
12:45-13:45	Lunch
Session 3 chair: Dr Ian Geraghty
13:45-14:05	RCoA Global Partnerships Strategy launch	Maria Burke, RCoA
14:05-14:40	TBC	Dr Vatshalan Santhirapala
14:40-15:15	CANECSA development	Professor Farai Madzimbamuto
15:15-15:30	Discussion and Q&A
15:30-15:50	Refreshments
Session 4 chair: World Anaesthesia Society
15:50-16:20	Developing global health skills	Dr Darmuid O'Donnovan, Queen Mary's Belfast
16:20-16:50	TBC	Dr Jannicke Mellin-Olsen, President, WFSA
16:50-17:30	Panel discussion
17:30	Close	