

A Career in Anaesthesia

8 October 2020

Venue: Royal College of Anaesthetists, London

Registration: £75 (£60 for RCoA members) Clinical Content Leads: Dr Paul Crowest

Are you a medical student or foundation year doctor and considering a career in anaesthesia? The Royal College of Anaesthetists is holding a half-day information session for those who want to find out more about the specialty. This day will focus on the general aspects of a career in anaesthesia, providing an insight into life as a trainee and consultant or SAS anaesthetist. There will be opportunities to ask questions throughout the day.

Sessions will include

- life as an anaesthetic trainee
- intensive care medicine
- pre-hospital medicine
- recruitment and application processes
- the future of anaesthesia and the skills required
