

Dr Alison Cooper
Consultant Anaesthetist (appointed 1993)
Rotherham Hospital

Alison was a College tutor from 1996-2001 and remains an Educational and Clinical Supervisor. She completed a M.Ed. in her spare time.

Director of Postgraduate Medical Education 2002-2016, she was involved at Trust and Deanery level in Faculty development work, Quality Assurance and Clinical teaching.

She has been an Associate Medical Director since 2014 for Appraisal, Revalidation and Mentoring and a Responsible Officer since 2018.

She was a Member of the Society for Education in Anaesthesia (1999) and has been a Council Member, Treasurer (2004-8) and President (2008-13).

She was a Member of the "Anaesthetist as Educators" group at the Royal College of Anaesthetists since 2004 and Chair from 2015-2018.

Since 2004, she has been a Member of the National Association of Clinical Tutors and was Chair from 2015-2018.