

Lancashire Teaching Hospitals

NHS Foundation Trust

"New to NHS" Simulation course Communication skills, Human factors and Critical incidents Training

RCOA 6 CPD points approved

Maximum of 12 delegates with 2 individual scenarios/delegate with immediate debrief

Introduction to various staff groups/teams

Discussion on checklists and important national protocols/guidelines/Audits linked to scenarios

Focus on non-technical skills and critical incidents

Topics covered

Breaking bad news	Difficult airway
End of life care/DNACPR	Major hemorrhage
Teamworking	Anaphylaxis
Handovers/SBAR	LA toxicity
Reviewing sick Patient	Tracheostomy
Dealing with medical error

Comprehensive Pre-course reading material

Delegates feedback from previous course

"Hope I could have had this experience even earlier in my training in UK"

"Would recommend they are made routine early courses that all IMGs go through when they first come to work in the NHS to help us settle in smoothly"

"Very well conducted. Very interactive, Since you have personalized feedback during de brief."

"Good Scenarios, well thought out"

COURSE DATE

1st April 2022

Royal Preston

Hospital

Preston, Lancashire

Course fee -125£

To book a place, E-mail: ltatricucourses@gmail.com

One-day course aimed at International Medical Graduates new to NHS practice

Approved course of Royal College of Anaesthetists National MTI Simulation Programme